School

Infinite space and unchanging tides seem to emphasize man's mortality. We are here but a moment in the endless life of time and space.

The 8:15 bell rang and the day's monotony began. Bell after bell separated time. The endless faces in the halls with the same expression seemed to push and hustle, each having their own destination though they are virtually the same.

The endless day was moved along by strings of computer programs. Attendance was taken every few minutes. Students were known to the school by their number and ID card.

The years seemed to take decades to pass. A day will come when we will wonder where the time went.

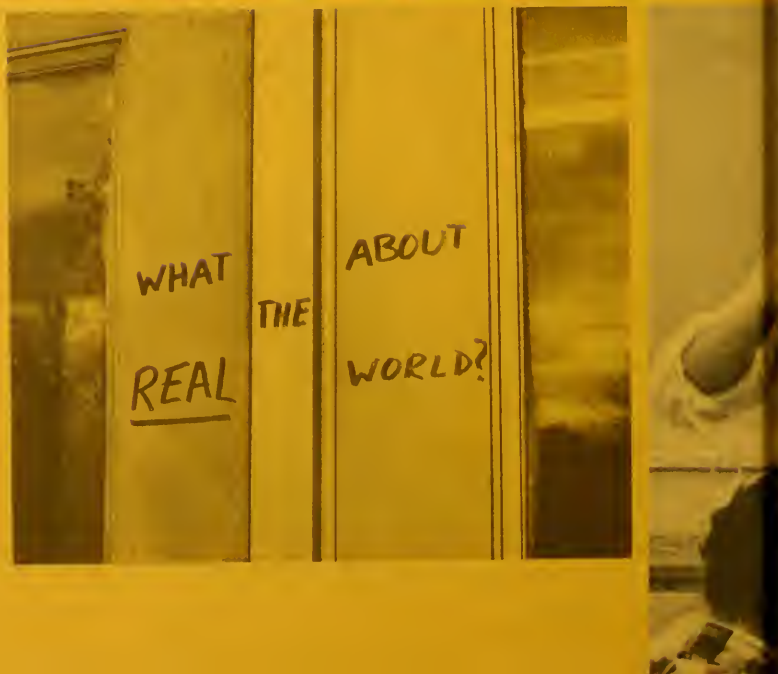

In the routine life outlined by rules and regulations we found change. Changes within ourselves, our feelings, our ideas, our surroundings, our codes, and our laws.

Everything around us will change in our lifetime. All of the things that we value as real and true will be tested and changed. Change is natural, and we must accept it. To grow is to change.

We entered high school, as we did life, as seeds blown from all directions. At first the seeds sought a place in the soil to grow, then the roots began to spread. Through the years we grew and blossomed, helped by the encouragement of parents, teachers, and friends.

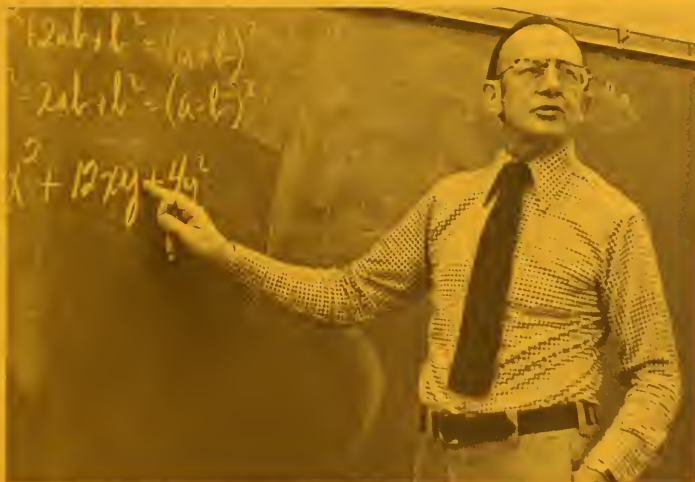

The surroundings changed. Often we were moved and shifted during times which we were supposed to have been ready to face change. From grade to grade, school to school, rank to rank, we were moved. Forces told us to change, and we blindly searched, confused and bewildered. We were told to grow up—but how? So often we were ready to change, to progress, but forces held us back for their conveniences. How hard it was to change, when the caterpillar was not permitted to spin its cocoon!

The years of youth were confused and trying. We changed so fast in the few years it was hard to stop and evaluate where we were going. We often avoided understanding and instead hid ourselves among a crowd or behind a mask, never looking within ourselves.

Somehow in the midst of confusion we grew. Facts and bits of information that had been drilled into our heads began to take form. We searched and tested what life had to offer. The values given to us by our parents were tested, and often times changed. We were learning about life and about ourselves.

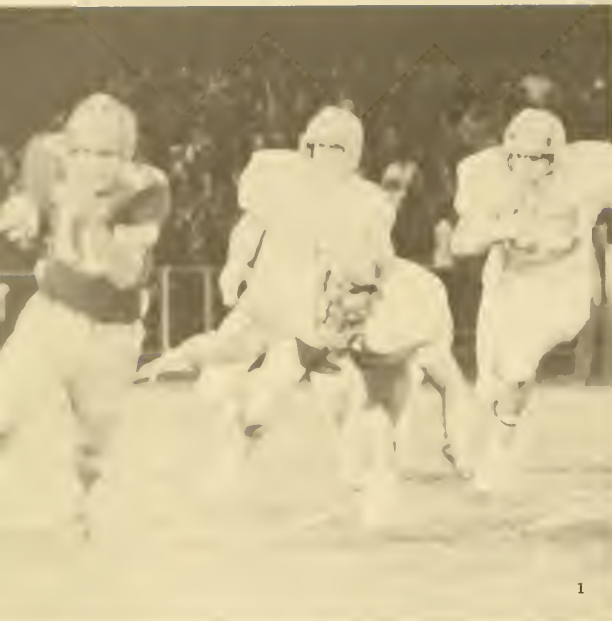

The members of the class of 1976 took their exit as graduates from EHS, as adults. They had changed since their first few days in the high school. Their attitudes, feelings and views had changed. They left with new goals but still hesitant. They scattered in all directions as the dandelion scatters its seeds.

Varsity Football

The Panthers of '75 struggled for the first part of the season with opening losses to Toledo Start, Warren Harding, and rival St. Joseph. These made them work even harder toward achievement of the pinnacle of success which eluded them for another few weeks, until a Homecoming victory spurred them on to capture second place in the new league. Under the first year tutelage of Head Coach Seymour, the Panthers finished the season with a 2-5-2 overall record, 2-3-1 in the Greater Cleveland Conference. Named to the All-League team were flanker Ken Petardi (led league in pass receiving and interceptions), tailback Stan Zupancic (gained 598 yds.), and punter Frank Reily (33yd. avg. punt). Honorable mentions were received by Mark Novosel, Tom Wandersleben, and Steve Pyle.

J.V. Football

After a slow start, the J.V. Football team returned to win five of their last six games. The Panther Kittens' offense, led by Captain Jim Baitt, plowed through the line to score 114 points in their last six games. The defense, led by Co-captains Dave Praznowsky and Jack Gregorin, held the opponents to minimum yardage and only 32 points in these last six games.

Marching Band

This year's marching band, under the direction of Art Sydow and Matt Springfield, entertained the onlookers with a variety of songs. Each show had a theme including a salute to the Bicentennial with helium balloons sailing across the sky. A two week summer band camp, Wednesday after school practices, and daily morning practices were responsible for the successful marching band season.

Majorettes

With the Euclid Band marching onto the field, the Majorettes twirled and strutted ahead. Each new half-time show gave the majorettes an opportunity to display the routines which they had learned at practices in the summer. As the season progressed, each routine became more complicated and more enjoyable. With the end of the football season, the majorettes continued their performances at the basketball games.

A.F.S.

American Field Service, an international organization, sends American students abroad and also receives foreign students. The Euclid chapter raised money by sponsoring a spaghetti dinner, selling candy, and having a Rock-a-thon. The money earned helped to bring an exchange student from the Philippines to our high school and send two students abroad to Switzerland and Bolivia. Social activities included picnics, soccer games, and parties.

Bill Hach and Ted Allchin, E.H.S. students that went abroad.

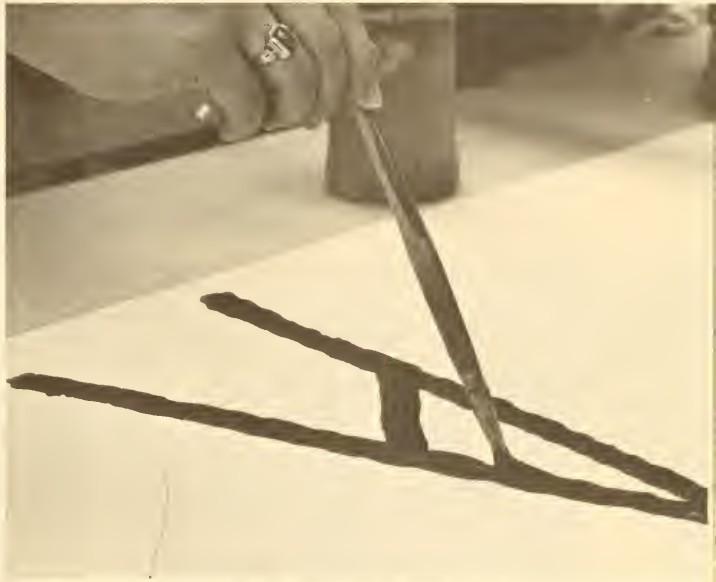

Edward Corral, exchange student from the Philippines.

Go Bananas

This year the Spirits Club was taken over by the Student Council and went bananas. Making signs on Wednesday nights, furnishing bus transport for away-from-home games, and cheering in a good sportsmanship manner were all duties which were successfully carried out by the Go Banana's crew.

Horsemanship Club

Traveling to Red Raider Camp was a weekly practice of the Horsemanship Club in the autumn. Members learned how to mount a horse and gradually progressed to trotting and galloping. The newly learned equestrians enjoyed riding for fun and acquired much talent in riding.

Pinochle Club

Pinochle, a game of skill and chance, is played every Tuesday by a few of Euclids' devoted students. The players enjoy getting involved with this card game, because it improves one's memory and disciplines the mind. A player must keep track of the tricks involved too. The card player with the Jack of Diamonds and the Queen of Spades has an advantage and scores Double Pinochle!

Astronomy Club

Members of the astronomy club found pleasure in studying the universe. They met occasionally in the school planetarium and then put their knowledge to use in their backyards and studied the Euclid sky, and its changes from season to season.

Members of the pinochle club are: Mr. Cléments, Dave Harth, Mr. Sallach, and Robin Pinkava.

Soccer

The '75 Soccer team rebuilt this season in the midst of change. Coach Sattler urged the team to an outstanding effort and with most players returning next year. Heads became backboards for guided missiles while shins became battered by opposing forces. Self-drive and determination become the most important key to the game, and to win becomes the object of every game.

Cross Country

Last year's underclassmen lived up to the reputation of past teams by turning in a fantastic performance throughout their first season in the Greater Cleveland Conference. The team, led by co-captains Adrian Griffin and Mike Chase, went undefeated in dual meets. Junior Bob Gold also helped pace the team to a fifth place finish in the state meet.

Water Polo

The Panthers thrashed their opponents as they made history by being the first Euclid water polo team to go undefeated all season. Leading the team in scoring were seniors Joe Cerer, Mark Mahnic, and Tom Hieber. Juniors Mike Pyle, Bob Ross, Scott Wise, and Ken Dorsch also helped on the attack. Coach Rodriguez was proud of the success of his team in '75.

Golf

The Panther golf team, coached by Mr. Raicevich, finished a disappointing season, but spirits were held high. The golfers diligently practiced, not only in sunshine and green grass, but tramped through mud and rain in search of lost balls. Leading the golfers were seniors Tim Dailey and Keith Daiber. The team is looking forward to a promising team next year as three of the five competitors will be returning.

POWDER PUFF

At 1:00p.m. on Sunday, November 9th, the annual senior fund raising project powder puff football game took place. Over 100 girls came out to participate in the traditional event. Throughout the game some of the participants of both the Gold and Blue teams were guilty of foul play. Half time show entertainment included male cheerleaders and majorettes doing "their thing!" The final score proved to make the Blue team victorious in a 36-12 lead. A powder puff dance followed in the student E-room.

Homecoming

October 15 started the Homecoming Festivities for Euclid High students. A Parade of floats, mayorial candidates, senior citizens, majorettes, and both Jr. and Sr. High cheerleaders marched down East 222 Street. Due to poor weather conditions the traditional bonfire was replaced with an indoor pep rally which proved to be successful.

Arsenic & Old Lace

For six weeks the Little Theater was alive with activity and preparation for the coming performance. Characters began to take the shape of two spinster old ladies, who murdered old gentlemen as one of their charities.

Teddy, Jonathan and Mortimer, the three young nephews of the spinsters also began forming their roles. The play was made up of an assortment of talented actors and actresses who ran in and out of the Brewster household.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The 1975-76 school year brought many changes in the Euclid Board of Education. Because of Dr. Di-Biasio's retirement, we received a new superintendent of schools, Dr. Ernest A. Husarik. Dr. Frank Houser was re-elected to his post as school board member, and Mrs. Shirley Nurmi was elected to her first term in that position, replacing long-time member Mrs. Mary King. The failure of the school levy after four tries brought further cutbacks in many areas of Euclid Education, and the school board members were forced to act on the impending financial crisis.

Graduating Seniors:

A "yearbooks" is a memorable document. Only last week I had reason to get out one of my annuals to refresh my memory on several friends of the past.

Preserve this record well. It will be a constant source of satisfaction and interest to you, long after your high school days are past.

My congratulations to this year's Euclidian staff and its sponsors. Special "Best Wishes" to The Class of 1976.

May you continue to be as proud of your school as we have been of you.

Administration

Preventing little problems from becoming big ones, the administrators are always available with a ready smile to help ease out the day to day problems encountered in Euclid's hectic environment. Deans And Counselors Euclid's counseling staff provides valuable assistance to students. Experienced and caring counselors and deans help students schedule courses, listen to students problems, and give career and college guidance. Although the secretaries often go unnoticed, these women perform the myriad duties day after day to keep divisions and the school functioning. Without them, Euclid High School would fail to exist.

Business

With a computerized society, the Business Department plays an active role in preparing tomorrow's leaders for the competition in the world of work. A student selects the course that best suits his desire and needs from a list that includes typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, Distributive Education, Co-operative Office Education, record keeping, general business, business English, office machines, salesmanship, and business law. With this preparation a student is better equipped to enter the business world, especially those who took advantage of on-the-job-experience.

English

An expanded English program keeps pace with today's world. Since students are both senders and receivers, the skills in communication stress the need to be accurate, intelligent, and clear. With advanced courses in media, more writing courses, expanded team teaching, and courses in humor and satire, students can elect a personalized program, especially with over forty courses from which to choose—English, a course for all seasons.

Social Studies

Through social study courses Euclid's students become informed citizens. Classes in government, history, area studies, sociology, psychology, humanities, economics, and human relations enable tomorrow's leaders to gain experience and insight about the behavior of man in his environment. At the same time, he learns about national and international affairs. With the continuance of the phase elective program, more courses met the needs of more students. A revision of the junior honors American studies course was another change for 1976.

1. Mr. Demora's government class gets involved. 2. The Lone Ranger reveals his true identity.

Math

Whether a student wants basic math, algebra, geometry, or calculus, the Math Department offers the opportunity to develop mathematical skills necessary for everyone and provides advanced courses for those who want to major in math. With change inevitable, the department introduced Informal Geometry, for those students interested in exploring geometry without the full mathematical development found in Plane Geometry.

The purpose of the science department is to make students aware of the methods of science and the natural laws of nature, and to develop within them a curiosity about the environment in which they live. Courses are offered in the areas of Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Basic Science, and in a relatively new program called Phase Science. With the introduction of such phase courses as backpacking biology, greenhouse, and environmental studies, students are able to expand their interests into a broader range of scientific fields.

Physical Education

In addition to providing an opportunity for exercise the Physical Education Department stressed the development of social maturity and sportsmanship. Course selections ran the gamut from health to hockey, from swimming to square dancing, and with a multitude of choices in between. A new program instituted this year allowed students to make all course selections at the beginning of the year through the use of the computer. This system alleviated conflicts in scheduling.

Library

Much like a college facility in miniature, Euclid's library provides resource materials for students and teachers, a quiet place to study and a meeting place for special classroom activities. This year the library expanded its cataloging system to include materials such as filmstrips, slides, tapes, records, and other non-printed media in order to service better its users. The relatively new media center, installed two years ago, also provided a popular way to study or spend leisure time. This year all these facilities were under the supervision of a new head librarian, Margaret Burns.

With the advent of television and the widespread use of visual aides in the classroom, the audio-visual technician with a crew of assistants schedule, preview, and repair equipment for over 150 teachers eight periods a day, for five days a week. Foreign Language

Each year, many students take courses in a foreign language. Be it French, German, or Spanish, the goal is the same: to master the language, and through mastery improve communications and relations between all people. Students also learn about the culture and the people of the land they are studying, and thus learn more about their own heritage. This year, the department again offered a trip abroad in the spring for all language students through the Institute for International Living, providing a real life situation.

Industrial Arts

Changing economy and lifestyles have changed some of the educational ways at Euclid. Classes that prepare the individuals for jobs are becoming more and more evident. Orientation and job training are available here before high school years end, developing young people who are ready for and specialized in various types of employment after they graduate.

1. Aspiring mechanic learns more about his career.
2. Industrial Arts teacher Frank Passarella working with his students.
3. Home Ec. students are skilled in the fine art of dressmaking.

Home Economics

Students enrolled in home economics have the opportunity to explore and experience the many areas of homemaking. It is the purpose of this department to guide the students not only in the development of skills, but also in the formation of attitudes and appreciations which will lead them to happier and more successful lives. Students in this department can choose courses in clothing, foods, family living, and vocational child care as best suit their needs and goals in the coming seasons.

Art

For the student seeking self-expression through visual media, art classes offer many different experiences. Classes in crafts, sculpting, and fine arts help students to express their inner feelings in a creative way to give pleasure to others, as well as to themselves. This year's phase courses widened the program so more students could do more things. The success of this program can be seen in the fact that it is to be continued.

Music

Music, the language of the soul, can be heard in many phases of school life throughout the year. From Varsity Chorale to the Jazz Band, from the Marching Band to Orchestra, from the first ball game to the final spring concert, the beat goes on. Practice begins in August before the first bell rings and goes on for the rest of life for many of Euclid's musicians.

Occupational Education

Meeting the needs of the individual has become a meaningful curriculum for many of Euclid's students. However, for a select group of students this curriculum means more than a philosophy—it is a method of learning and experiencing. Through actual work experience, students develop skills they will use in life. They take jobs in local businesses, train for some jobs here in school, and gain valuable experience through interviews and social contacts. A staff of dedicated people work daily to meet the needs of these students so they can be prepared to meet their futures.

Behind The Scenes

Behind the scenes at Euclid, many people perform duties essential to student life. Nourishing meals, clean rooms, lighted hallways, hot water, air-conditioning, clear driveways and entrances—all of these services students take for granted and have come to expect. With an outstanding staff of dedicated people—cooks, custodians, cleaning staff, nurses, paraprofessionals, and electricians—Euclid High ranks number one!

Varsity Basketball

The Panther Basketball team enjoyed success this season in the battle with Maple Heights and Eastlake North for the GCC title. The team's most evident asset was its towering height with 6'9" senior Rich "Chickie" Yonakor and 6'8" sophomore Cliff Kirchner, winning the battles of the boards. In addition, senior co-captains Tom Harrell and Brian Feiock proved invaluable to the contribution towards the team's string of victories.

J.V. Basketball

J.V. Scores

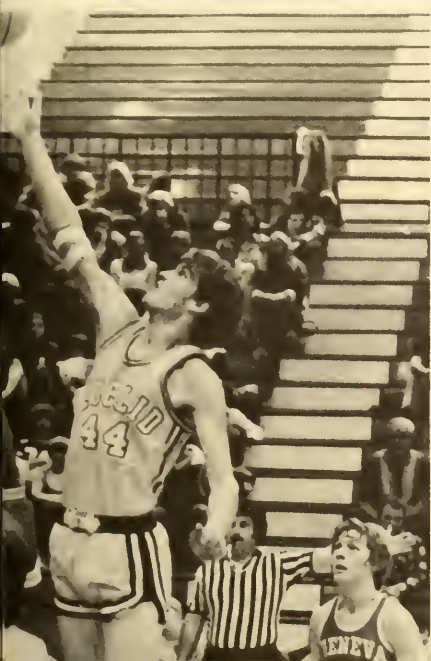

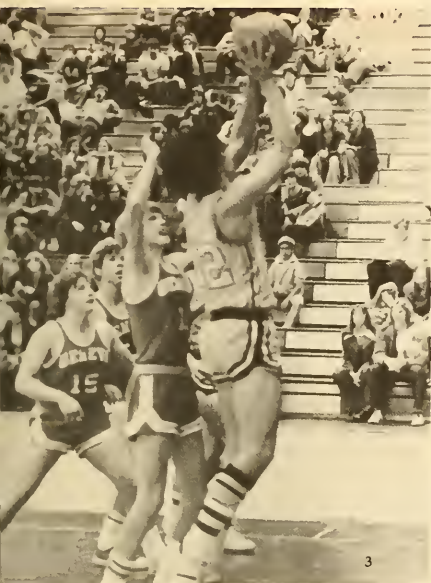

The J.V. Basketball team finished respectably to end their first year in the GCC. Englehart's 'Gremlins' were full of talent, but faced difficult teams and played under pressure this season. They possessed desire and drive which spurred their attendance of daily practices. Despite good and bad games, they beat the toughest team in their league, Maple Heights.

Hockey

A third-place finish in the Navy Christmas Tournament brought Euclid High its first hockey trophy. A 5-4 victory over Parma in the tournament's consolation game clinched the spot. Led by senior captain Todd Morgan, the young club continued to improve and, in its quest, reach parity with perennial powerhouses Cleveland Heights and Shaker Heights. Euclid faced its toughest schedule ever because of the new divisional alignment. The many returning players, along with Euclid's improved youth hockey program, give Euclid hockey a bright future.

Wrestling

The Panther Grapplers combined their inborn talents with acquired skills in pinning opponents on their way to a victorious season. Inspired by the leadership of Coach Roger Brown, exhilarating performances were consistently turned in by seniors Dale Noles, Mark Novosel, John South, and Mark Wandersleben. Underclassmen also put forth effort for the team cause. The J.V.'s also worked extremely hard to defeat their opponents and gain experience in hopes of joining the Varsity team the coming year.

Indoor Track

Straining, concentrating, achieving, and excelling are the trademarks of Euclid's Indoor Track team on its way to yet another successful season. Excellent efforts by our guys and girls made for enthralling and exciting victories in the relays, sprints, field events and endurance runs. This year, through the efforts of co-captains Adrian Griffin, Mike Chase, and Tom Wandersleben, the team won their 100th straight home meet and continued their string of victories which began before the indoor track was built.

Swimming

The Varsity Swim team boasted 10-2 overall record, and tied for fourth in the Bedford Relays. Records were shattered throughout the season as seniors Tom Hieber, Brian Katz, Mark Mahnic, Joe Cerer, juniors Scott Wise, Mike Pyle, Bob Ross, and sophomore Mike Glaser were outstanding in their events. Sophomore Mike Donly and junior Monte Carlo did a fantastic job in diving. Coach Rodriguez felt great pride in his team, which was undefeated in the Greater Cleveland Conference, claiming first place honors in the league. The J. V.'s, inspired by the Varsity swimmers, also had a 10-2 record, to the delight of coach Harry Siskind.

Girls' Tennis

Coached by Arlene Carter, the 1975 girls' tennis team smashed their way to a winning season, though they were beaten twice by Hawkens and three times by Beaumont. They aggressively returned flying balls and left their opponents astonished at their dexterity. The girls not only competed against other teams but against each other for top spots in the lineup. Top singles winners were Debbie Williams, with a 9-0 record, and captain Julie Jordan.

Girls' Volleyball

The 1975 girls' volleyball team fell victim to several successful teams but came out on top with a 4-3 record. The team, coached by Miss Whieldon, worked vigorously to improve skills that came easy only through hard work and dedication. Euclid had the opportunity to host the state tournament this year. Although our team was eliminated early, it was a good experience for all who participated.

Girl's Basketball

The exciting spirit of the Girls' Basketball team combined with their skills and led to many successful games. Coached by Miss Buck, the girls aggressively bounded towards their goal and tasted sweet victory as winning baskets were put into the net. The girls combined a well-patterned offense, a pressing defense, and hustled up and down the court to end its season with its share of wins. The members of the team practiced long hours to have a winning season.

Student Council

Student Council worked hard and had a very productive year. To raise money for remodeling the E-room the club introduced non-food vending machines to the student center. They also were responsible for revising the Spirits Club into "Go Bananas" and organized many student pep assemblies. Christmas food baskets, Homecoming and Winter Festival dances also were planned contributions of the Student Council members. Having a student suggestion box, using it as a constructive instrument to meet the needs of the students all proved to be accomplishments of this year's Student Council.

GAA

This year's GAA participated in the many athletic games played after school. For the first time ever the girls organized co-ed crab soccer teams. This broke the long tradition of all-girl intramural.

The GAA sponsored a basketball game between the Cleveland Indians Baseball team and the teachers of Euclid to raise money. The game was a success in both entertaining and raising money. The girls also sold T-shirts and had bake sales to add to their revenues that were used for awards, uniforms and a banquet at the end of the year.

Cheerleaders

The 1975-1976 Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleading squads were among the best to be seen at Euclid. Led by dedicated and untiring captains, the spirited crew put in many hours of practice in the halls perfecting their mounts, chants and cheers. Throughout the year, their enthusiasm and undying spirit kept the Panther fans alive and psyched the teams for a victory.

O.E.A.

Both the vocational clerk typists and stenographers are members of O.E.A. (Occupational Education Association). The two year programs stress intensified office skills such as filing, dictation, typing and bookkeeping. Shorthand and its many uses is also emphasized in the stenography program. Each class has one social affair per month. Candy and bake sales are just a few of the money raising projects that contributed to their club funds.

C.O.E.

The students involved in the Cooperative Office Education classes attended school in the morning and then left for work at local business. This helped the members gain further skills in the business fields and prepared them for a career after high school. As a club, they worked on various projects and became a close group by the time the school year was over.

Key Club

The Key Club helped many in need this year and showed much interest in the school by aiding Student Council at Thanksgiving when they donated their time and well earned money, entering a float in the Homecoming parade, and offering many dances throughout the year. The Key Club is associated with the Euclid Kiwanis Club and their main objective was service to the community. Along with the service was the fun, because when you enjoy what you do, you do a better job. In this Bicentennial year the Key Club planned to go "all out" on an exclusive project and were supported by the student body.

S.I.E.

Students involved in Education met every other Thursday. They were active in promoting special programs for elementary and junior high students. In the Spring the members had an observation day when they traveled to nearby schools and saw students in the classroom and experienced what teaching was really about.

Student Store

The workers of the student store supplied the students of Euclid with their necessary materials. They volunteered their services before school and during study halls to work in the store. The student store provided a handy service for those last minute needs such as paper, pens, and pencils. A few nice extras that the store offered were certs and cough drops. The success of the student store was due to the efficiency of the responsible students.

Student Store Workers: FRONT: Gwen Bashline, Debbie Bliss, Dave Turner, Sue Gundling, Kim Kaifesh. BACK: Rick Armstrong, Ted Fox, Chris Formica, Joanne Oyaski, John Furlong, Val Paynich.

Vocational and Industrial Club

This club was associated with the trade and industrial education program. The club members attended school for half of the day and then went to work at a job relating to their field of interest. They were trained in a wide variety of areas, ranging from law enforcers to meat cutters to nurses' aids. The club competed with regional organizations in North Eastern Ohio and served the community through a program aiding disadvantaged children.

P.A. And Audio Visual Aids

Radio Club

The Radio Club broadcasted this year with their WA8ZGE ham radio from the third floor of Euclid High. After school the club met to practice their radio technical skills. With a series of dots and dashes they learned a new way of communicating that could be used in their future careers. Many of the members hoped to go on to receive a first class F.C.C. license.

Choirs

Euclid High's choirs; Varsity Chorale, Choral Masters, and Girls' Chorus sang in school concerts and traveled to perform at other locations showing their musical talents everywhere. Dressed in uniform, the many students blended together to become a single, united voice. This ability was not achieved over night, but took many hours of dedication and practice from each choir member.

Science Seminar

Science Seminars were held on Tuesday nights at Euclid High, with an occasional field trip to a laboratory. Many scientist and professors came, speaking in a relaxed atmosphere to the members on a variety of science related topics. The result was an educational enrichment for those students who attended.

From Beginning To End

First the crowds gather 'round, talking and laughing.
They assemble by the curbs and wait.

Then, from far away, the sounds come, first faintly, then louder, and louder, and louder.

The sounds appear, in the form of a band marching in perfect formation. The crowds cheer, the band goes by, next comes a float of every color of the rainbow, yellow, and blue, and purple.

Horses, clowns, floats and bands in one hugh line.

Following one another down the block-off street.

The crowds are delighted, but they see the last band go by playing "America". The music gets fainter, and fainter, and fainter, as the parade ends.

—Liz Powell

Eucuyo Editor-in-Chief

Eucuyo

The Eucuyo was Euclid High's literary magazine. The members wrote creative prose and poetry and also accepted other writings and artwork contributed by fellow students. The magazine was published in the Spring, when the talents of these young writers was displayed.

Survey

This year the Survey experienced several major changes. Their original advisor resigned after 15 years and three new advisors sponsored the club. Their office was moved from its previous location to the second floor. Finally, several changes were implemented in the staff ranking system, resulting in the appointment of the first editor-in-chief in many years. After adjusting to the many revisions, the staff worked together to produce a fine newspaper keeping students aware of what was happening at Euclid High School.

I.Q.S.

The I in I.Q.S. stands for the gallons of ink used each year by Euclid's many journalists who kept the student body informed, entertained, and inspired. The Q represents the quips and quotes that fed the intellect and tantalized the mind. However, most important are the (S)tudents that dedicated hours of time to meet, write, photograph, type, paste, print, and publish the Eucuyo, the Euclidian, and the Survey. This organization honors those students that many times go unheralded.

Debate Team

The Debate Team traveled to other schools to demonstrate the process of educational debate. The topic of the year resolved: That the allocation and development of scarce world resources should be controlled by an international organization. Arguing both the pro and con of the topic, the members broadened both their forensic abilities and their own viewpoints.

The Debate Team: Denise Smith, Arvy Mackevicius, Bob Kunath, Dan DeMarco.

Camera Club

The science of photography was focused on by the Camera Club. The techniques of developing were mastered by its members in the school's dark room. The interesting effects of different lenses, filters, and various papers were all experimented with by the members. The young photographers learned much for their benefit for future use.

Camera Club: Eric Hanson, Frank Ciotti, Carl Krysiak, Marc Harmon, Doug Hodakievic.

Ad Club: FRONT: Denise Lorence, Sue Heimsoth, Jenny Gephart. BACK: Jodi Holloway, Patty Noel, Val Tancredi, Val Paynich.

Ad Club

Ad Club members were a dedicated group of students. Present at all sports events they sold tickets and programs, and then were given free entry into the game. It was not uncommon to see at least a few of these students standing in rain, wind, and snow in front of the football stadium and in the booths outside of the basketball games; waiting until their last program was sold so they could join the spectators in the stands.

Ad Club: FRONT: Sylvia Krulc, Debbie Andrews, Kim Kaifesh. BACK: Sue Znidarsic, Mary Erdani, Chris Gole, Carol Kernya.

Girls Swim Leaders

The Girl's Swim Leaders devoted one period a day to aiding a teacher in swimming instruction. Whether helping someone improve their diving or introducing new swimming skills, these girls were eager and prepared to carry out their jobs for the benefit of other classmates.

Girls Leaders Club

Members of the Girls Gym Leaders Club participated in physical education activities daily. They took attendance, refereed class games as well as G.A.A. sports, assisted teachers in demonstrations, and took care of the sports equipment. Summer car washes, bake sales, and an annual Valentine's Day flower sale were money raising projects for fun and finance.

Wai Napolo

Tuesday nights were the scene of hard work and discipline for the members of Wai Napolo. The 1975-1976 school year brought a change in the leadership with Mrs. Luikart, secretary for Division S-Z and a male co-advisor, Mr. Von Benken. These merry mermaids, poised gracefully in the pool, practiced diligently on their delicate, original water ballet, stunts, and routines for their end-of-the-year show. To prove their aquatic skills they competed in synchronized swim meets at Cuyahoga Community College.

Weight Lifting

Members of the Weight Lifting Club conditioned during the long winter months. Lifting weights to develop body strength and toning muscles was part of their physical fitness program. Keep it up Weight Lifters!

Some of the Weight Lifting Club Members are: Larry Shiffbauer, Jim Sumner, Davorin Slat, Bill Walters, Frank Schule.

Foremen Club

The Foreman Club was a group of young men who assisted teachers in the several shops and then met to discuss the problems and possible solutions of those problems. They took field trips to local machine shops, garages, and manufacturing industries to get better acquainted with the world of work. Under the direction of Mr. Chambers and Mr. Nold, these young men were better prepared to meet their chosen vocation and were one step forward to becoming foremen after they graduate.

Swim Leaders

This years' Swim Leaders proved to be invaluable to Euclid High's swim teachers. They led the class in the daily warm-ups, lessons and games. Refing water polo games during gym class and helping fellow classmates improve their swimming skills was also included in the swim leaders' services.

Swim Leaders: FRONT: Dave Sidnan, Tom Walters, Ken Kosovich, Mark Strathern, Steve Camp. BACK: Roger Miller, Jim Orme, Ron Anzells, Bob Campus, Joe Frech.

Metal Sculpture

Creativity was a common quality of those involved in the Metal Sculpture Club. Starting with basic materials, they were able to transform scrap metal into beautiful art work. They met after school to learn the techniques of welding and metal work which culminated in their sculptured creations.

The Red Cross Club consisted of a few, but extremely hard working students, meeting frequently to help those in need throughout the surrounding community. Decorating the Veterans Hospital at Christmas time proved to be one of their most rewarding experiences. Their biggest project climaxed in the spring when months of planning, advertising, and coordinating resulted in the second annual Euclid High School Blood Mobile.

Pink Panthers

The Pink Panthers showed their fine seamstress talents in mending the schools' torn and tattered athletic uniforms. With needle, thread, and thimble they worked diligently, making sure every last seam was sewn properly. The girls were rewarded by receiving free admittance into any of Euclid High's sports events.

Pink Panthers: FRONT: Nancy Voll, Cathy Sakas, Sherri Cebul, Chris Gelev, Beth Hart. BACK: Patti DeMarco, Laura Hood, Pam Hall, Patty Redman, Debbie Redman, Terrv Vesel, Lori Klinko, Debbie Fink, Ginny Matthews, Debbie Chambers, Chris Centa, Bonnie Urgeleit.

Ski Club

Ski Club members sold candy to help pay for their skiing expenses. Meeting after school on Thursdays (when snow was available) the Ski Club traveled by chartered bus to the nearby slopes. Learning and perfecting new skills the skiers developed a true interest in skiing that could be used in their future.

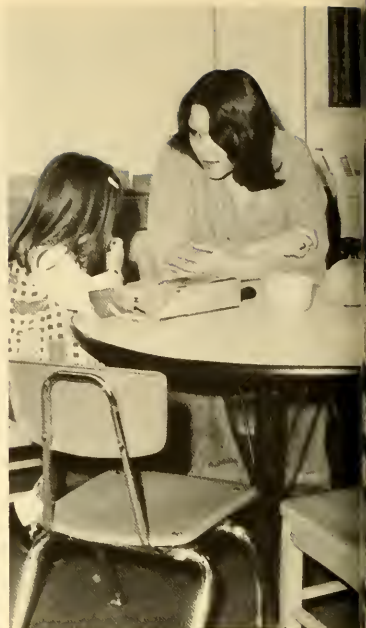

500 Miles

The 500 Mile Club is an association whose athletic members have run a total of 500 miles. Many of the members were participants on the Track and Cross Country teams. These running enthusiasts built up their endurance, strength and stamina. The runners also received a great personal satisfaction in knowing that they had successfully run 500 miles!

Child Care

Girls in the Vocational Child-care Course traveled to Noble Elementary School each morning to teach their own nursery school. There was a one-to-one relationship between the E.H.S. students and the pre-school pupils. The girls took turns observing the class and teaching. The teachers were responsible for introducing a science experiment to their eager students. The course was beneficial to those students interested in early childhood education and, of course, to those who would later be rearing children of their own.

Cosmetology

The Euclidian Beauty College was one of Euclid High School's many vocational courses. Girls who were planning their future as a beautician received valuable training in hair styling as well as facials and hand manicuring. The girls practiced on one another and on wigs until they became familiar with the many techniques and then cared for customers with their newly acquired skills.

Sophome Junior Senior Classes

All three of the grade levels at Euclid High were represented this year. The Sophomore Class was really active and won the Christmas hall decorating contest. Jr. Class elected a cabinet which planned money raising projects and social functions for all those in eleventh grade. Senior Class and its cabinet sponsored the annual Powder Puff Football game and Senior Talent Night to raise money for the last event of their year—Senior Prom.

Winter Play

"January Thaw" was presented by the Drama Department the last week of February. The Gage Family of New York City is seeking a relief from the big city and a chance for father to write a best seller. They decide to settle down in an old farm house in rural Connecticut. Problems arise when the Rockwoods, a family of country folk, also move in, due to their rights from an old deed. The problems that both families were confronted with created an enjoyable evening.

Over the past two hundred years, America has evolved from 13 small colonies opposed to "taxation without representation" to 50 states that support the cause of freedom in every land. From the first shot at Bunker Hill to the present vote on Angola, Americans have steadfastly maintained that freedom is an "inalienable right." These 200 years have been cautiously bold, for our nation has dared to keep the faith of such men as Sam Adams, Patrick Henry, George Washington, Roger Williams, Abraham Lincoln, and Woodrow Wilson. In our day, such men as Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Harry Truman, Dwight David Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King, and Henry Kissinger have added their talents to make America the "land of the free and the home of the brave." No longer does America stand in isolation of the world but actively participates in the commerce and problems of the world. Our heritage has given us purpose and courage to fulfill that purpose.

Happy Birthday, America!

Juniors

After one year's experience at Euclid, the juniors returned for another year of work. They became the bullwarks of the athletic program and organizations. Looking forward to future careers many juniors launched vocational programs while many college bound students continued with their academic programs leading to a profession. As the year progressed, the juniors met the challenges and in May accepted the reins of seniorhood. Thus, they became the class of 77.

Below the grid of portraits, there are several lines of faint, illegible text, likely names of the students, which are too blurry to transcribe accurately.

Seniors

1976 was the Bicentennial year, a very important historical moment. The school year of '75-'76 was also a very special year for seniors. They became more aware of the future, its responsibilities and challenges. All of the seniors were individuals. Some left school early and went to their jobs, while others stayed after school and participated in activities. For some, their final year was the best, and for others, it was an end of something old and a beginning of something new.

we place your help wanted ads anywhere—u.s.a., canada, u.k., europe

The World's largest recruitment ad agency is headquartered here in Cleveland. Call us at 861-3787 and get acquainted!

As specialists and pioneers in modern recruitment advertising, we have developed techniques which are unusually effective. Our ads work. Word gets around. That's why we now handle recruitment advertising for many of the leading firms in the nation. □ Nationwide Advertising Service, Inc. has 23 offices in key labor markets over the country—all linked to the Cleveland Headquarters by Telex and Fax equipment for instant transmission of advertising copy and layouts. We have a staff of nearly 100 persons, copywriters, artists, researchers and specialists in recruitment advertising service. Our agency is different. We concentrate on satisfying the needs of Personnel Executives. Whether it's for a one-inch ad or a full page, a new brochure or a billboard. We offer you unique services. For example, when you are out-of-town on a recruitment trip: We'll place your ad, with a local telephone number, and take your calls, pre-screen applicants and set up appointments for your interviews. Find out what we can do for you. Ask for our free publications.

1975 EUCLID STUD

The Power of Student Council lies in the hands of the students, with group work accounting for a working group.

A successful Student Council is built with each student's hands. When a group of people work on a project, each has to realize that he is the "key to success." With 100% participation, there will be a success. A united student body and a new spirit slogan contributed to a very spirited school year. Through pep rallies, buttons, T-shirts, cowbells, and spirit signs, the "Go Bananas" slogan spread the year around. Student Council, believing that communications are important, held meetings with the Administration. Each party offered advice about areas of common interest. Homecoming and Winter Festival were successful weekends. With Homecoming on Sweetest Day, and Winter Festival on Valentine's day, Cupid helped Student Council with two great memories of our 1975-76 school year. Since our experiences in life are usually determined by our expectations, Student Council became a great experience.
